

Structure your AI prompt with CATS:

Context: Provide the background.

For example: "I own a privately-owned professional services business with 25 employees. We've experienced strong growth over the last two years and are holding an annual leadership planning day to discuss opportunities, challenges and priorities for the coming year"

Angle: Tell AI what perspective to take.

For example: "Act as an experienced workshop facilitator who works with growing Australian businesses"

Task: Be specific about what you need.

For example: "Create a half-day leadership planning agenda that includes discussions on business growth, operational efficiency, team engagement, client experience and strategic priorities for the next 12 months"

Style: Specify how you would like the information presented.

For example: "Present the agenda in a clear, practical format with suggested discussion questions and activities that encourage participation and action planning"
